2nd Call for Applications

Do you want to be more involved in the Town?

There are still openings on Town committees for 2017-2018.

If you are interested in serving on any of the following committees, please return the application form on the other side of this sheet to Town Hall by January 13, 2017.

Cemetery Commission

The Cemetery Commission oversees the operation of the Park Cemetery off Kinburn Street as well as the Bayview Cemetery on Edgewater Street. The committee meets quarterly or as required.

Heritage Advisory Committee

The HAC deals with municipal heritage properties in the town and the administration of the Town’s Heritage Bylaw and portion of the Provincial Heritage Act. The committee recommends to Town Council properties that should be considered municipal heritage properties and other heritage matters. The committee meets on a monthly or as needed basis. The structure of this committee is coordinated with the assistance of the Mahone Bay Founders Society.

Police Advisory Board

The Police Advisory Board, in consultation with the RCMP, designates priorities and goals respecting police services in the community. The committee meets quarterly, as required.

Watershed Advisory Committee

The Watershed Advisory Committee is mandated by the Nova Scotia Department of Environment and is formed to set guidelines for the protection of Oakland Lake, the Town’s water supply. The committee meets on an ad-hoc basis as required.
